Catch up on what God is doing in Colombia

Twenty months ago, when I moved to Bogotá after living in California for seven years, I never imagined that learning to walk on water, as God had told me He wanted to teach me, would look like this. Throughout this journey, I've seen God's faithfulness at every step. I've watched how each step of faith has paved the way for more people to believe in Him and follow Him.

When I asked God what my ministry would look like after moving to Colombia, Jesus answered, "I am your ministry. Keep your eyes on Me. Abide in Me." Those words have remained deeply rooted in my heart ever since.

It all started with two friends gathering in a small living room to pray. Those weekly gatherings are still happening today, but more people have joined us, sharing Jesus' heart for those who don't know Him and interceding for His Kingdom to come. The Lord has brought each person along the way, and He has opened doors to new relationships with pastors and leaders from churches and ministries across the region, all with a shared desire to serve His purposes together.

As we've continued praying in the Spirit, we've watched God's Word come alive and transform our hearts. At the same time, our desire to see the power and reality of the book of Acts lived out in our generation has continued to grow.

I've watched people who would never have imagined approaching a stranger on the street step out in faith to pray for and minister to children, young people, and the elderly in cities across Colombia. I've seen them pray for people in wheelchairs and witness them get up, help people turn away from sin and surrender their lives to Christ, and minister freedom to those who have been tormented for years.

There's only one way I can explain what we've witnessed: the power of the Spirit of God forming Christ in us and filling us with His love for the things He loves, so that more and more people might come to Him. We've experienced a remarkable shift in our lives—from the testimony of the Holy Spirit promised in John 15:26 to us becoming witnesses as in Acts 1:8. God is shaping us into people who carry His presence and help others encounter His love.

None of this would be possible without God's love and the people who pray for, serve, and support this ministry. Every person who hears the Gospel, encounters the love of Jesus, and is rescued from the kingdom of darkness becomes part of what we are building together. We believe that everyone who takes part in proclaiming the Gospel also shares in the joy and reward of seeing lives transformed by God's power.

And this is only the beginning!

There are cities still to reach, people who need to hear the Good News, and a generation that needs to know Jesus. We want you to be part of what God is doing and stay connected to everything He has in store. Here's how you can get involved.

Every month, you'll receive a newsletter featuring three things:

1. What God Has Done

Updates on what God has done throughout the month, along with testimonies of lives being impacted by His power.

2. What's Ahead and How to Pray

Updates on upcoming outreaches and ministry opportunities, along with specific prayer requests. You'll have the opportunity to intercede for the people, cities, and doors God is opening. Prayer is the fuel that keeps this ministry moving forward (Mark 11:24).

3. Practical Evangelism Strategies

Each month, you'll receive a practical evangelism strategy you can share with others, use to equip and mobilize people in your church or ministry, and put into practice as you take the message of Jesus wherever you go.

Subscribe with your email at jesuspeoplego.com to receive the newsletter.

You can also partner with us financially. Your generosity helps us continue training, equipping, and mobilizing more people to share the Gospel. If you'd like to support the mission, you can give at jesuspeoplego.com/?lang=en#apoyar.

From the bottom of my heart, thank you to everyone who has been part of what God is doing through Jesus People—to those who have faithfully prayed for us, participated in our training sessions, invited us to preach, and opened the doors of their churches and ministries so that others can be equipped, activated, and set on fire for God. And thank you to everyone who has given financially to support this mission.

We press on, keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus and carrying His love to every corner of the world, longing to see people everywhere come to know Him and be saved.

With gratitude and faith,

Santiago
